

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

POSSIBLE RUSE OF THE ALLIES—WHEN THE DOCTOR GOES HOME
—Chicago News

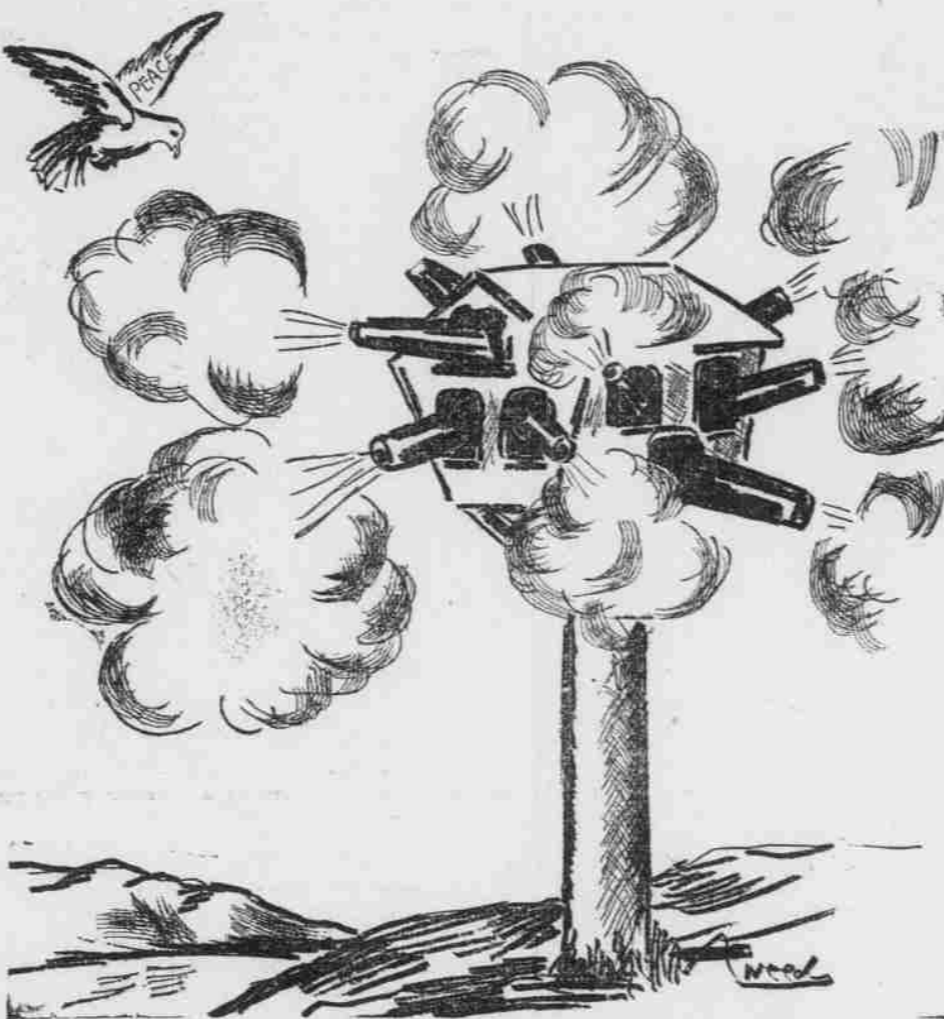

OUT AGAIN
—Kansas City Journal

AT BAY
—New York Tribune

THE ELOPMENT
—Ohio State Journal

THE DOVE COTE AT LAKE MOHONK
—Philadelphia Public Ledger

NOT A SCRAP OF PAPER
—Boston Record

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

ELMVILLE

The Week's Happenings.
Dennis Rawson and Mrs. Royal C. Rawson spent Sunday and Monday with George Rawson and family of Rumford, R. I.
Timothy E. McCarthy was home from Yale over Sunday.
Albert Smart has gone to South Killingly for the summer, to work on a farm.
Frank Brophy and family motored to Passaconaug Sunday.
Miss Laura Chase of Jewett City spent the week-end with her parents.
Mrs. R. L. Kenyon was the guest Friday of Mrs. H. O. Preston of Putnam.
William Mulligan has an automobile.
Mrs. Mary Dwyer and Miss Florence Hopkins will spend Memorial Day at Oakland Beach.
James Kent is improving his house by the addition of a bay window.
R. A. Potter of Worcester and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Merrill of Providence were week-end visitors with J. E. Potter and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Elston will be the guests of Mrs. Elston's sisters in Lawrence, Mass., over Memorial Day, after which they will tour some of the Massachusetts and New Hampshire beaches.
John Clark boss dyer of the South Hill Worsted mill, has rented a house in Danielson.
Peter Lrdac has returned to Greenville on account of illness.
James Flannagan of North Bellingham, Mass., has come to work in the Killingly Worsted mill.
Miss Clara West went home to Moosup over Sunday and John Gallagher went to Greenville, R. I.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Mrs. Ida E. Cummings has returned from a visit with her son, Burnette W. Cummings, at South Manchester. Thursday morning ice formed as thick as window glass.
County Commissioner Fred J. Brown recently purchased a handsome five-passenger touring car.
Judge and Mrs. Albert K. Kneeland

CHESTERFIELD

May Basket Surprises On Two Birthdays—G. A. R. Memorial Services Sunday.
Supervisor Carlton E. Wheeler visited schools here Thursday.
Miss Mable Chapman was given a May basket surprise party Thursday evening for her sixteenth birthday. Among those present were Misses Hazel Powers, Mary Tinker, Julia Sullivan and Florence Powers and Messrs. Louis, Robert, Bennie Kaplan and Stanley Tinker.
Albert Walden of this place is working for Irving Gadsbois of East Lyme. There was only half a day school Friday on account of a teachers' meeting in Palmerton conducted by Supervisor Carlton E. Wheeler.
Birthday May Basket.
Friends and relatives of Mrs. C. J. Tinker gave her a May basket surprise party on her 47th birthday. Games were played, songs and duets were sung and refreshments were served.
Miss Susan Rogers spent Sunday with Misses Hazel and Florence Powers.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tinker and daughter spent Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Powers.
John Kaplan is visiting in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kaplan and Mr. Miller have returned home, after spending the holidays in New York.
Memorial Services.
Officers of the Grand Army are to hold services in the M. E. church, Sunday at 2 p. m.
The dance in Kaplan's hall Tuesday evening was enjoyed by a large gathering.
NORTH LYME
C. R. Tiffany of Wallingford and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Rogers of Salem, visited at William Sisson's, Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mack of Had-lyme and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miner visited at Fred Miner's, Sunday.

Miss Ethel Maynard visited her sister, Mrs. Merrill Babcock, over Sunday.
Mrs. A. P. Gates and Mrs. H. A. Gates visited at G. H. Strong's, Tuesday.

OLD MYSTIC

Rev. William Crawford of Baltic Assigned to Methodist Church—John Hood Re-enlists in the Navy—Ball Game With Bulkeley Cubs Today.
Rev. William Crawford of Baltic, who has been occupying the pulpit of the local Methodist Episcopal church for the past three weeks, has been assigned the pastorate of this church by District Superintendent George G. Scriven of Norwich.
Rev. Joseph R. Verry of Springfield, Mass., occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday, May 23.
Ball Game Today.
The Young Men's association baseball team will play today (Saturday) with the Bulkeley Cubs of New London on the Association field.
Miss Gertrude Ockrey, who is well known in Old Mystic and vicinity, was a member of the graduating class at Hampton, Va., university Thursday. Miss Ockrey stands high in her studies and has been teaching for the past four months.
The Sunshine club of Burnett's Corners met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank B. Ingram. Supper was served at 5.30 p. m.
Mrs. Gertrude Ockrey, who is well known in Old Mystic and vicinity, was a member of the graduating class at Hampton, Va., university Thursday. Miss Ockrey stands high in her studies and has been teaching for the past four months.
The Sunshine club of Burnett's Corners met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank B. Ingram. Supper was served at 5.30 p. m.
Mrs. Gertrude Ockrey, who is well known in Old Mystic and vicinity, was a member of the graduating class at Hampton, Va., university Thursday. Miss Ockrey stands high in her studies and has been teaching for the past four months.
The Sunshine club of Burnett's Corners met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank B. Ingram. Supper was served at 5.30 p. m.

OAKDALE

Personal Items of Local Interest—Recent Visitors.
At the Congregational church Sunday the pastor, Rev. C. L. French, chose for his subject, the Christian's Reward in Heaven. Text Matt. 5.12.
Mrs. Frank Calvert of Uncasville, the Center, Sunday, and attended church.
Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Schofield, and son, Raymond, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Wheeler of the Scotland road (Norwich), on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dolbear of New London were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Auwood and family.
First Selectman C. H. Bradford has purchased a touring car. Horace Rogers is giving him lessons.
Move From Salem.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Raymond Douglas who recently sold their place in Salem have moved into the house at Montville Center.
Miss May Auwood of Waterford was a guest over the week end of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Auwood.

GLASGO

Benjamin W. Young is bookkeeper with Swift and Co., in Norwich.
Rev. J. Thompson and Frank Gardner attended the banquet held at Jewett City M. E. church, Wednesday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Burdick attended the re-enlistment of the Baptist church in Voluntown Sunday afternoon.
Mr. Chesbro of Stonington was a recent caller at Ray Button's.
Mrs. J. J. Cole returned last week from visiting at her home in Westfield, Mass.
There were no E. L. Services at Bethel Sunday evening, that the people might attend the services at the Baptist church in Voluntown, where Rev. John Thompson gave an address.
Oliver Young spent the week end with his sister, Mrs. W. P. Thorpe in Westfield.

SOUTH LYME

Mrs. Savilian Chapman and her sister were recent guests of Mr. F. W. Chapman.
R. F. Standhope is away on a business trip.
Mrs. F. C. Payne visited her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Comstock, of New Haven recently.
Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Payne entertained Mrs. Sarah Comstock of Danbury this week; also Mrs. Henry Chapman.
Merritt Comstock is in New York for a few days.
Mrs. R. Standhope is ill.
The children of the Seventh District school are anticipating a picnic at the end of the term, next week.
The concert at the Union chapel was a decided success. All took part in a very pleasing manner.

LAUREL GLEN

Clarence Main spoke in the chapel Sunday in place of Rev. Mr. Van Horn of Ashaway. Mr. Main is great-grandson of the late Steery Park, of Pendleton Hill.
Emory and Charles Hildred of Providence visited their mother, Mrs. Lydia Hildred last Sunday. They made the trip by automobile.
Mrs. Moran and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hildred were callers at At-taway Main's Sunday.
Mr. Marble was a business caller in Westerly and vicinity Tuesday.
Mrs. William Main and daughter, Emma, were Ashaway callers Monday.
Supervisor Evans visited the schools in this district on Tuesday.
Mrs. Dwight Main was in Alton on Thursday.
ASHWILLETT
Mr. Lohnes of Port Washington, L. I., the purchaser of the Palmer farm here is not to occupy it this season.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Walker were in North Stonington Saturday.
Harry Pierce is about again after lo-ing confined to the bed and house for six weeks by a fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Main entertained Mrs. Main's sister from New London, Saturday, and friends from Mystic Sunday at dinner.
Miss Nellie Casey of Coxsack Hill was in Norwich during last week.
E. Thompson put in potatoes with a planter this week for the Casey Brothers.
Mrs. Julia A. Crumb entertained a sister and niece from Jewett City on Sunday.

GOSHEN

Interesting Address By Sherod Soule—Partridge Nest Found, With 14 Eggs.
A very interesting address was given by Rev. Sherod Soule of Hartford Sunday. His subject was the Growth of the Congregational American Home Missionary Association, also the work it is accomplishing, more especially in Connecticut. Along the same line of thought was the large number of splendid views shown by the stereopticon, Sunday evening. A good number were in attendance.

At Groton Installation.

Rev. John H. Knott and Deacons W. W. Gillette and J. Y. Thomas were chosen delegates to attend the installation at the church in Groton this week.
Several from this place were in Colchester Wednesday evening attending the concert given by the students of Bacon Academy.
At Birthday Gathering.
Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Mott, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kenyon and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Curry of this place were among those who attended the birthday anniversary at the home of Dr. E. L. Danielson of Lebanon on Monday. The company are hoping to meet at the home of W. T. Curry at Crystal Spring farm, next year.

Bird Notes.

In a secluded spot a partridge nest with 14 eggs was found this week. Quail are numerous, and in the vicinity of an old rail fence, be the weather lowery, or bright, there comes the merry whistle "no wet." The different peculiarities of the birds are daily interesting to note.

HALLVILLE

Mrs. Sara Jaeger of Danielson who has been the guest of Mrs. L. A. Eccleston for the past week left Wednesday for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hunt of Potter Hill, R. I.
Mrs. Daniel Little was a business caller in Norwich Wednesday.
A large number from here attended La Tena's circus at Norwich on Tuesday.

HAMBURG

Body of Missing Man Drawn Up In Shad Net—Supper For L. B. S. Members.
Burton De Wolf of Black Hall was a guest at B. P. Hill's over Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Harding visited their daughters, Mrs. Fred Pitts of Hampton and Mrs. Frank Gage, of Norwich, last week.
Mrs. William Pentz gave a party last Saturday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Ethel Curry of Idaho.

GRISWOLD

The Weekly prayer meeting was held at the parsonage Wednesday evening.
Mrs. E. A. Geer, Miss Bertha Geer, Harold Geer, Frank and Susie Morgan, Misses Jessie and Mary Anderson, Mrs. F. S. Child, Miss Olga Stanger, Miss Ellen Campbell, F. F. Edmond, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Edmond, Mrs. William Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Montgomery, Harold Edmond and Herbert Sanlesheny attended the re-dedication exercises at Voluntown, Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Barnes of Preston were callers in town Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Norman and son George of Pachaug, were callers at Mrs. Norman's brother, Herbert Gallup of Plainfield, Sunday.
Mr. Albert Burton, who has been very ill is a little better.
The Christian Endeavor society is planning to give a sock social.
Mrs. Percy Davis of Boston is visiting her brother, Victor Campbell.

CAMPBELL'S MILLS

Mrs. George A. Tanner visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holmes at Fatchaug this week.
Horace Perkins made a business trip to Ledyard recently.
A good number from this vicinity attended the circus at Moosup Wednesday.
Charles A. Barber and Thomas Lewis are building a house in Plainfield.
Miss Edith Gardner, who has been assisting Mrs. L. B. Greene of Plainfield is now confined to Mrs. Greene's home with the measles.

FRANKLIN

Norwich Family at Sunny Top—Memorial Exercises to Be Held on Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Robinson were in Norwich Thursday.
Mrs. Eliza Johnson and family have come from Norwich to their summer home at Sunny Top.
Louis Ortmann was a visitor in town one day the past week.
Mrs. May Ross was a guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Ladd.

LEFFINGWELL

Mrs. W. H. Greenman of Westmancaster has returned to her home, after spending two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Dwight Lovett.
Avery Gallup and Fred Leffingwell visited Misses Anna and Minnie Foley of New London Sunday.
Miss Gladys Leffingwell and Ruth McNeil of Norwich were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Leffingwell.
Mr. and Mrs. Hymon of Groton spent Sunday with Mrs. Hymon's sister, Mrs. Dwight Lovett and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Rue Bliven of Norwich spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Whiting at the Uncas farm.

GARDNER LAKE

Farmers Having Poor Luck With Young Turkeys.
Mrs. Fred Fish was a guest of Mrs. S. A. Dolbear Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Fitch Dolbear were at their cottage over the week-end.
Mr. and Mrs. William R. Dennis and children, Gilbert and Grant, and Miss Grace Lathrop were Sunday guests of E. J. Lathrop.
Fred Stamm has left the employ of E. J. Lathrop.
Mrs. S. A. Dolbear entertained an automobile party of relatives from New London recently.
Farmers are having ill luck with young turkeys this spring.

MOHEGAN

There was a good attendance at church Sunday, both morning and evening.
Mrs. Dolbear and Mrs. Avery were in Norwich Tuesday.
Mrs. Griffin and daughter Pearl, of Groton, have been guests of Mrs. Hunter for a few days.
Coffee grows wild in German East Africa.